IN RE THE PETITION ROSS
FURUKAWA TO ESTABLISH THE
SANTA MONICA DAILY PRESS AS A NEWSPAPER OF GENERAL
CIRCULATION

No. BS087128

JUDGMENT ESTABLISHING THE SANTA
MONICA DAILY PRESS AS A
NEWSPAPER OF GENERAL
CIRCULATION
(Government Code §6000)

The verified Petition of Ross Furukawa to have The Santa Monica Daily Press ascertained and established as a newspaper of general circulation, as defined by Government Code §6000 of the Government Code, came on regularly for hearing by the Court on March 17, 2004 in Department 45 of the above entitled court. Petitioner appeared by his attorney, Lisa Grace-Kellogg.

Evidence, both oral and documentary, was introduced on behalf of Petitioner, and the matter was argued and submitted for decision. On proof made to the satisfaction of the Court, the Court finds as follows:

1. The substance of the Petition and Notice of Hearing was duly published in pursuant to Section 6062 of the Government Code, proof of such publication was duly made, and the Court set the Petition for hearing, as required by Section 6021 and 6022 of the Government

Code.

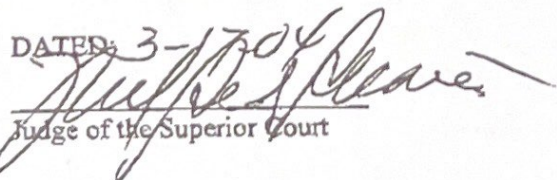

2. The Santa Monica Daily Press is published for the dissemination of local news and intelligence of a general character in the County of Los Angeles, California. It is not devoted to the interests, or published for the entertainment or instruction of a particular class, profession, trade, calling, race, or denomination, or for any number thereof.

3. The Santa Monica Daily Press has a bona fide subscription list of paying subscribers in the County of Los Angeles.

4. For more than one year preceding the filing of the petition, the petitioning newspaper has been established and has been printed and published at regular intervals in the County of Los Angeles.

5. During the whole of such one-year period, the mechanical work of producing the petitioning newspaper, that is, the work of typesetting and impressing type on paper, has been performed in the County of Los Angeles; the newspaper has been issued from the same county where it is printed and sold; it has been both printed and published in the County; and it has been published as a daily newspaper on each weekday and Saturday.

WHEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that The Santa Monica Daily Press is a newspaper of general circulation as defined by Government Code §6000 for the County of Los Angeles and State of California.
